

COPYRIGHT POLICY

Last Updated February 2018

Copyright protects works of authorship in a fixed or tangible form such as literature in books, poems, paintings, photography or any medium of expression.

Reid Print Pty Ltd respects the copyright law in Australia and of those individuals involved in creating copyright material, such as music, films, software, published books, and artistic works.

Reid Print Pty Ltd employees shall not make, store, transmit or make available unauthorised copies of copyrighted material on Reid Print Pty Ltd systems, equipment or storage media.

Reid Print Pty Ltd employees shall not download, upload, store or make available unauthorised copies of copyrighted material via the internet using Reid Print Pty Ltd systems, equipment or storage media.

Shannon Hemmings is responsible for carrying out this policy. Any questions as to whether an employee may copy or use copyrighted material in ways covered by this policy should be raised with Shannon Hemmings before proceeding.

Any activities or materials that violate this policy are subject to immediate removal, termination and/or forfeiture of the material.

Reid Print Pty Ltd employees that violate this policy are subject to discipline as appropriate under the circumstances. Such discipline may include termination.